October 17

IWA Open House

What a wonderful way to socialize!! All the sororities and independents opened their houses to all students for an evening of conversation, dancing, and eating.

A fire which spread over the third and fourth floors of the McGregor dormitory gave strong competition to the annual Sigma Chi Watermelon Bust scheduled for that afternoon. The fire under control, all rushed to the Sigma Chi back-yard for an afternoon of fun with barkers advertising gay carnival booths and a lively watermelon eating contest. Jackie Lair, surrounded by a court of Freshman beauties, received the queen's trophy.

Seniors

We, the Senior Class of 1955, will to you, our successors, the many and varied talents of which we are possessed. In the hope that you many use them in the wholehearted and enthusiastic manner that characterized us, we leave you the exuberant party spirit of one faction and the determined brains of the other. But united we are, first in the challenge of the Freshmen fight and then in the wonderful culmination of graduation.

Sophomores

The members of the Sophomore class are taking their places among the leaders on the Colorado College campus. In all the college activities we are well represented. Although we were not the victors of the Freshman-Sophomore fight, we exhibited much class spirit and unity.

THE TIGERS

SORORITY FLOATS

The Tiger Club in their yellow uniforms and the freshmen in their dinks and paddles led the 1954 Homecoming Parade up and down the crowded streets. The competition was stiff in the sorority float division. But the Thetas won top honors by their Mother Goose theme entitled "Throw the Book at 'em". Second place went to Delta Gamma for their Humpty Dumpty and the Gamma Phis received honorable mention with their See-Saw Marjorie Daw.

FRATERNITY FLOATS

The theme of Tales of Mother Goose provided the inspiration for this year's Homecoming Floats. Such nursery rhymes as the Beta's "Old Woman In a Shoe" and the Phi Delt's, "Oh Dear, What Can the Matter Be?" were used. The first place was given to the Phi Gams with the theme "I Saw a Ship a Sailing".

"A COMEDY OF ERRORS"

COLORADO COLLEGE PLAYERS

William Shakespeare became modern when the CC players presented "A Comedy of Errors". The Duke was portrayed by John Hunter with the twin masters being depicted by Jim Mergler and Louis Barrette. Ted Shelton, Bruce Heuser and Cal Fish played other leading roles with an excellent supporting cast.

Alpha Phi

The Alpha Phis, being new on the campus this year, have already succeeded in gaining that feeling of belonging to C.C. Teas, dances, and open houses have been the center of attraction in their lovely modernistic lodge which was just completed this fall. The new pledges, along with the new house mother will continue to bring recognition and assure a great future for Alpha Phi.

Delta Gamma

Last fall the Delta Gammas came back eager to begin another year of studies, activities, and fun under the leadership of Marty Kirtley Eldredge. Along with our whirl of social events we've had four dorm presidents, and many of our members belonging to AWS and QA. We won second place with our Homecoming float, and much has been accomplished on our project Aid to the Blind.

Gamma Phi Beta

The outstanding spirit and friendliness of the Gamma Phi Betas was shown throughout the year. In the fall Sally Powell was elected Homecoming Queen with the "See-Saw" float placing third. Helping to better relationships with the town people, G-Phis distributed TB seals, made Christmas favors for the Child Day Care Center, and were the largest supporters of the Varsity-Alumni Basketball Game. Sandy Ferguson was the first CC Coed to be nominated for Aspen Winterskol Queen. Spring activities were centered around the province convention with CC Gamma Phis as hostesses—all together a wonderful year for every G-Phi.

The opening game of the 1954-55 season at Denver introduced to Colorado College students and fans a new personality, Coach Roy Robertson. He began the season with a rigid program of rebuilding to fill the vacancies left by the many lettermen not returning to C. C. Many such positions were filled by promising freshman players. The coach and team looked optimistically towards the season.

The 1954-55 Hockey season proved to be very fruitful for Colorado College and the players. The return of eleven lettermen and many promising newcomers made Coach Cheddy Thompson look with cautious optimism at the team's prospects. This optimism, along with fine leadership and great playing, brought much glory to C. C. Our first performance was against the Alumni. We split the two game series and then dove into the rest of the season. We placed first in the Western conference race, outplaying such teams as Michigan, North Dakota, Denver, and Minnesota. We also won the Western North-American Championship by defeating Alberto U. in a two game series at the Broadmoor Ice Palace. In the total of 28 games we played this season, C. C. came out on top in 22 and lost only 6. This outstanding record sent us to the N. C. A. A. Hockey Tournament in which we placed second.

Song Fest

The sixth annual song fest was held again in Shove Chapel. The five sororities, Independent Women, and the five fraternities took part in it, making this year's fest one of the most outstanding. Kappa Alpha Theta was selected as winner of the women's division and Phi Gamma Delta was first in the men's. Kappa Kappa Gamma and Sigma Chi were runners-up, respectively. Miriam Robbins was the general chairman.

Judy Avery accepts trophy for Thetas.

Jim Ward receives trophy for the Figs.

Miss Mary Louise Emmert

M'lou was chosen from several candidates to represent Colorado Springs in the "Miss Colorado" contest.

MOUNTAIN DAY

Mountain Day, the annual all-school sneak, was held again in Manitou Park. The Mountain Day committee, headed by Betty Troutman, worked hard to make this a day not soon to be forgotten. All had fun playing softball and volleyball in the fresh mountain air.

SKI

The 1955 Ski Team coached by K. G. Freyschlag competed in an informal conference and co-sponsored a very successful meet with Western State at Gunnison. The team also took part in three competitive meets with the five smaller colleges of Colorado, winning second place. The high-point man this year was Bill Fite. Other members of the team were Bob Mann, Karl Holzl, Jeff Johnson, Dane Barbour, Dean Perrin, Harvey Carter, Lynn Six and John Sheldon.
